The Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost Service of Holy Communion

Jesus told his disciples, "Whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant." As followers of Jesus, we are a servant church giving our lives for others. Our Christian discipleship is in imitation of Jesus, who came not to be served, but who poured himself out upon the cross for the world. Jesus did not glorify himself, but carried the sins of the world, and by him we are made whole. Jesus is the source of salvation for all who obey and believe in him.

Bold responses are spoken by the congregation.

*Offerings may be placed in the plate at the entrance to the sanctuary.
The Offering will be brought forward by the usher during the Offertory Anthem.*

Processional Hymn "All Creatures, Worship God Most High" (ELW 835) LASST UNS ERFREUEN

1. All creatures, worship God most high!
Sound ev'ry voice in earth and sky: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Sing, brother sun, in splendor bright; sing, sister moon and stars of night:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
2. Sing, brother wind; with clouds and rain you grow the gifts of fruit and grain: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Dear sister water, useful, clear, make music for your Lord to hear:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
3. Sing, brother fire, so mirthful, strong;
drive far the shadows, join the throng: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Dear mother earth, so rich in care, praise God in colors bright and rare:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
6. O sisters, brother, take your part,
and worship God with humble heart: Alleluia! Alleluia!
All creatures, bless the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three in One:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Welcome

Pastor Timothy McKenzie

The congregation may sit or kneel for the Confession.

Confession and Forgiveness

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God,
whose teaching is life,
whose presence is sure,
and whose love is endless.

Amen.

Let us confess our sins to the one who welcomes us with an open heart.
Silence is kept for reflection.

God our comforter:

like lost sheep, we have gone astray.

We gaze upon abundance and see scarcity.

We turn our faces away from injustice and oppression.

We exploit the earth with our apathy and greed.

Free us from our sin, gracious God.

Listen when we call out to you for help.

Lead us by your love to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Amen.

All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

By the gift of grace in + Christ Jesus, God makes you righteous.

Receive with glad hearts the forgiveness of all your sins.

Amen.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ + the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray. Sovereign God, you turn your greatness into goodness for all the peoples on earth. Shape us into willing servants of your kingdom, and make us desire always and only your will, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 53:4-12

Charles Lakeman, lector

⁴Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. ⁵But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed.

⁶All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. ⁷He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. ⁸By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. ⁹They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. ¹⁰Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper. ¹¹Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. ¹²Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 91:9 (Comer) Refrain reproduced from Psalter for Worship Year B © 2008 Augsburg Fortress

⁹*Because you have made the LORD your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place, ¹⁰no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent. ¹¹For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. ¹²On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone. ¹³You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot. ¹⁴Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name. ¹⁵When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honor them. ¹⁶With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.*

Second Reading

Hebrews 5:1-10

Charles Lakeman, lector

¹Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; ³and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. ⁴And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. ⁵So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; ⁶as he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” ⁷In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. ⁸Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; ⁹and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal

On each of the boards, the following verse has been written, "The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth forevermore" (Psalm 121:8).

Let us pray. O Lord God, Jesus, the stone which the builders rejected, has become the cornerstone of the church and of our lives. We ask that, as this Habitat for Humanity home is built, Christ the cornerstone, would bless and dwell in this home. Bless these boards, which will be fitted into this new home, and may Christ always dwell therein. May the construction of this home be safely completed, and may you, O Lord, give light and peace to all who will dwell there. We pray this in the holy name of Jesus. Amen.

Please stand.

Apostles' Creed

With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

(Pastor McKenzie, prayers)

The congregation may sit or kneel for the Prayers.

Set free from sin and death and nourished by the word of truth, we join in prayer for all of God's creation. A brief silence.

Holy One, for the gift of the church handed down through the ages we praise you. Empower your church in all places to the servant ministry of Jesus; renew the gifts of your Holy Spirit upon the churches of all nations, and in every language, equipping them with the gifts of the Spirit. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Creating One, for the abundance of creation, the diversity of habitats, and the amazing life you sustain, we praise you. Enable us to be servants who help life flourish as you intend. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Suffering One, for all people of good will who work for peace and justice and seek to serve with a servant's heart, we praise you. Bless the leaders of this nation and all nations, to bring peace

Sustaining One, for all who volunteer and serve in this congregation, we praise you. Strengthen and encourage greeters, ushers, office volunteers, bakers, cooks, counters, committee, team and circle leaders, youth and children, musicians, and all who serve with generous hearts. We pray that you would sustain St. Mark's in our search of a new Director of Family Ministry. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Risen One, we thank you for the saints who have served your church and shared your gospel. We offer you thanks for the life and witness of Alta Eger who passed away last Sunday. Welcome Alta into the blessedness of your eternal kingdom and may she share in the inheritance of the saints in light. Strengthen and comfort the extended Eger family with the sure and certain hope of the resurrection of Christ Jesus. Hear us, O God.

The Great Thanksgiving (spoken)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
Broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer

Lord remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray,

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation

All who hunger and thirst, come.

The table is ready.

Distribution of Holy Communion

Music Notes

"All Creatures, Worship God Most High" ELW 835 This hymn of praise was written in 1225 by one of the most fascinating individuals in our church history, Saint Francis of Assisi (1182-1226). He was a mystic, founder of the Franciscan monastic order, and spent a good portion of his life as an evangelist, preaching and helping the poor of Italy. It is even said he preached to the birds, and they listened! The following was written in tribute to St. Francis: "Saint Francis came to preach-with smiles he met the friendless, fed the poor, freed a trapped bird, led home a child. Although he spoke no word-his text, God's love, the town did not forget". St. Francis saw all of creation, including death, as praising God. The tune name LASST UNS ERFREUEN dates to 1623 Germany, where it was originally paired with an Easter hymn with the beginning words "Let Us Rejoice". Evangelical Lutheran Worship pairs this tune with four different hymns.

"I Love to Tell the Story" ELW 661 Arabella Katherine Hankey (1834-1911) a nineteenth century English poetess, was born into a family of wealthy Anglican evangelicals. This hymn is from her seventy-four stanza poem "The Old, Old Story" published in New York in 1875. Austin Lovelace writes of this hymn: "Many people sing this hymn vigorously but do little to go out and 'tell the story' beyond the church walls. Kate Hankey startled England by the unheard-of thing by starting a Bible class for working girls in London. She also served as a nurse in South Africa, and turned over all proceeds from her writings to Christian missions. She lived what she wrote!" Philadelphia musician and piano dealer William G. Fischer (1835-1912) wrote the tune HANKEY and added the refrain.

This Week: From the Lutheran Church Calendar

October 17, Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch, martyr (c.35-c.108)

Ignatius was the second bishop of Antioch, the city where the name “Christian” was first used. Ignatius is known to us only through the seven letters he wrote to churches on his way to being martyred in Rome. In these letters he encouraged Christians to live in unity with the bishop, sustained with love, while standing firm on sound doctrine. Ignatius regarded suffering as the way of true discipleship. Through Ignatius we are reminded that in some places today Christians still face suffering and death for their faith in Jesus Christ.

October 18, Luke, Evangelist

St. Luke is identified by tradition as the author of both Luke and Acts. Luke is careful to place the events of Jesus’ life in both their social and religious contexts. Well-known parables, like the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son, are found only in this gospel. Luke’s gospel has also given the church some of its most beautiful songs: the Benedictus sung at morning prayer, the Magnificat sung at evening prayer, and the Nunc Dimittis sung at the close of the day. These songs are powerful witnesses to the message of Jesus Christ.

October 23, James of Jerusalem, martyr (died c.62)

James became an early leader of the church in Jerusalem. he is described in the New Testament as the brother of Jesus, and Roman-Jewish historian Josephus called James the brother of Jesus, “the so-called Christ.” Little is known about James, but Josephus reported that the Pharisees respected James for his piety and observance of the law. James was put to death by stoning.

Parish News

From the pastor – September 14, 2021

The Mecklenburg Board of County Commissioners has voted to require masks in religious settings, in addition to its Public Health Rule requiring face coverings in indoor public spaces regardless of vaccination status. Mecklenburg County urges all eligible people who are unvaccinated to get vaccinated to help slow the spread of Covid-19 and avoid further restrictions.

Bishop Tim Smith and the NC Synod Council have also strongly encouraged congregations to follow the CDC guidelines for all persons to wear masks indoors. All of these leaders, state and church, urge people to be vaccinated “in the hope that increased vaccination levels will continue to reduce infection rates and additional restrictions will not be needed” (Mecklenburg/Charlotte Proclamation).

St. Mark’s now requires masks to be worn in the building by all persons vaccinated or unvaccinated. We continue to allow congregational singing while wearing masks (worship leaders may unmask to lead worship); we also continue the current practice of Holy Communion in two ways; to allow fellowship with food and drink only outdoors on the patio (weather permitting); and to encourage people to be mindful of their distance around others.

The Council also expresses agreement with the Synod's statement that "congregations support vaccination efforts" and "communicate opportunities for vaccinations including the At-Home Vaccination program offered by the NCDHHS." St. Mark's Council recognizes that we must work together as a church with state and national agencies to encourage vaccination as a means to overcome this global pandemic.

The church's mission continues as we seek to share Christ's light in a world that is suffering, fearful and anxious. We must continue to be a living sign of the hope that dwells in us through Jesus Christ (1 Peter 3:15). We have been blessed with grace and faith so that through our ministries others might find strength and peace in Christ Jesus. Let us walk in confident faith and act together with courage for others.

In the grace and peace of Christ,
Pastor Tim McKenzie

Dulin’s characters come to life with the spirit of these women from his past. Dulin has had a long history in the arts as a musician, artist, photographer, and playwright.
